

TAB "J"

REFERENCES

1. CIA responsibilities for the conduct of covert operations are as set forth in NSC 5412/2 (NSC 10/2 and NSC 10/5) (See Tab E).
2. Staffing procedures require that Theater Unconventional Warfare plans be formally approved by the JCS prior to a formal statement by CIA concerning the capability to undertaken action in preparation for CIA's war-time role in support thereof.
3. Memorandum from the Chief, PPC, to Chief, Joint Subsidiary Activities Division, dated 2 August 1954, in which informal comments were forwarded on Annex U and in which was included an analysis of CIA's current capabilities in China and Southeast Asia.
4. Memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence to Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, dated 29 January 1955, in which CIA accepted the requirements of Annex U to CINCPAC GEOP 11-53 and outlined the Agency's peacetime preparatory action. (See Tab I)
5. Memorandum from Senior War Planner, Far East, to Commander in Chief, Far East, dated 13 July 1955, in which Senior War Planner, Far East, outlined CIA's capabilities to undertake the requirements contained in Annex F to Ops Plan CINCFE 1-54.
6. Dispatch from the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense (Special Operations) to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the Joint Chiefs of Staff memorandum to the U. S. Commanders in Chief requested a review of Unconventional Warfare requirements to insure that they are current, realistic and essential. (See Tab F)
7. Memorandum from Chief, PPC, to Chief, Joint Subsidiary Activities Division, dated 7 September 1955, contained informal comments on CIA acceptance and non-acceptance of the Unconventional Warfare requirements contained in Annex I to US EUCOM JCP 1-54.
8. The CIA concept (Criteria Paper) of its role in clandestine support of wartime military operations was set forth in Director of Central Intelligence memorandum of 29 October 1955 to the Joint Chiefs of Staff.
9. Memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence to Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff, dated 22 November 1955, in which the Director of Central Intelligence accepted Annexes F to CINCFE 1-54 and 10-54 and pointed out the limiting operational factors in the peacetime preparation to fulfill wartime requirements.
10. The Joint Chiefs of Staff approved US EUCOM JCP 1-54 less the appended Unconventional Warfare requirements. (See Tab G)
11. Memorandum from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Joint Chiefs of Staff, dated 12 December 1955, concerning CIA action to implement Annex I to US EUCOM JCP 1-54. (See Tab H)

TOP SECRET

12. To replace the individual target requirement contained in US EUCOM JCP 1-54, U.S. Commander in Chief, Europe, has proposed an "Unconventional Warfare area" concept which visualizes the establishment of a minimum of one covert agent in each area who is responsive to United States influence.

13. The Joint Chiefs of Staff redelineation of Unconventional Warfare planning area boundaries placed the Commander in Chief, United States Air Forces, Europe, area under the coordination control of U.S. Commander in Chief, Europe.

14. Memorandum from Chief, PPC, to Chief, Joint Subsidiary Activities Division, dated 2 December 1955, contained detailed comments on USAFE UWP-54.

